Cases listed in Exhibit "A,"

O R D E R

AND NOW, this 25th day of May, 2012, it is hereby ORDERED that Plaintiffs' Objections to Scheduling Orders Entered
April 12, 2012, listed in Exhibit "A," attached, are OVERRULED.¹

cases brought by The Cascino Vaughan Law Offices ("CLVO") are referred for pretrial management, entered scheduling orders in the cases listed in Exhibit "A," attached, on April 12, 2012.

Plaintiffs make the following objections (see 2:10-cv-67443, Doc. No. 100, at 6):

- (1) The discovery deadlines are too short when there are no definite trial dates;
- (2) the time frames in which parties are to file expert reports are too short; additionally, consolidated expert reports should be permitted;
- (3) the summary judgment deadlines and briefing schedules are too short; and
- (4) the scheduling orders to not include provisions for Rule 16 conferences, or exact dates of final pre-trial conferences, trial dates, and/or remand dates.

Plaintiffs' objections are non-dispositive motions that are subject to the "clearly erroneous and contrary to law" standard of review. See 28 U.S.C. § 636(b)(1)(A); Fed. R. Civ. P. 72(a).

A discussion of the history of the CVLO cases is helpful in determining whether Plaintiffs' objections should be overruled.

Filed by CVLO, counsel for Plaintiffs in the instant cases, these cases are part of MDL-875, the federal Asbestos Multidistrict Litigation. Since June, 2009, the Court has disposed of 158,385 land and maritime docket asbestos cases, representing hundreds of thousands of claims.

On May 4, 2009, there were approximately 5,000 CVLO asbestos-related cases pending in MDL-875. On that date, I referred the approximately 5,000 CVLO cases to Senior Judge Lowell A. Reed, Jr. as Court Annexed Mediator. Judge Reed held his first mediation session on August 27, 2009. The mediation sessions, which Judge Reed conducted through late April, 2011 when he retired, were focused less on the mediation of individual cases and more on the logistics of managing such a high case load and on reducing the number of cases based on their relative merit, since the vast majority of the cases alleged non-malignant conditions.

Early in the litigation, it appeared CVLO was struggling to handle the number of cases that they had filed. For example, on August 17, 2010, Judge Reed ordered CVLO to submit all remaining Administrative Order 12 ("AO12") submissions by November 1, 2010. As of this date, I am still ruling on large numbers of motions to dismiss in CVLO cases for failure to provide adequate AO12 submissions. Similarly, on January 26, 2011, Judge Reed ordered CVLO to submit to defendants all interrogatory answers by February 21, 2011. Now, there is still a dispute concerning CVLO's failure to submit properly verified interrogatory answers.

As early as December 2009, Judge Reed began authorizing discovery on such issues as exposure history, job site identification, product identification, and medical records. Throughout the mediation process, the scope of discovery continued to expand and included, inter alia, Judge Reed's adoption of standard interrogatories on October 5, 2010, and his authorization to depose ill plaintiffs on January 26, 2011. Judge Reed's efforts resulted in the dismissal of more than 3,000 of the cases. CVLO voluntarily dismissed most of these cases, apparently after evaluating their likelihood of success.

On April 18, 2011, anticipating the retirement of Judge Reed, I referred the cases to Magistrate Judge Strawbridge for settlement purposes only. On June 9, 2011, I modified the referral order and directed Judge Strawbridge to "conduct pretrial procedures, supervision of discovery, settlement conferences, and preparation for trial." After the entry of this order, Judge Strawbridge shifted his focus from mediation to litigation of the remaining cases. Judge Strawbridge entered the first scheduling order in the first group of ten cases on June 9, 2011. This scheduling order was amended three times in order to extend the deadlines at counsel's requests. Judge Strawbridge also entered scheduling orders in the remaining cases in groups of approximately one to three hundred cases. Judge Strawbridge entered the first of these scheduling orders on July 15, 2011.

Six more scheduling orders followed, approximately one per month. Judge Strawbridge amended all seven of these orders two to four times in order to accommodate counsel's scheduling requests, culminating in the April 12, 2012, scheduling orders which are the subject of the current objections. Judge Strawbridge also established a secondary discovery track for certain cases which would be used to frame a future Daubert hearing regarding plaintiffs' physicians, Doctors Alvin J. Schonfeld, Henry Anderson, and Ibrahim Sadek. Again, this schedule was amended several times, ultimately moving the Daubert hearing originally scheduled for March 7, 2012, to September 25, 2012.

In addition to placing all remaining cases on scheduling orders, Judge Strawbridge has actively assisted the parties in resolving a multitude of discovery and logistical issues. Such efforts include engaging in numerous in-person conferences; weekly Wednesday telephone status conferences; near-daily telephone sessions on discrete issues; the entering of hundreds of orders and opinions; and the establishment of various protocols, including the August 4, 2011 Deposition Protocol, the November 9, 2011 Medical Records Collection Protocol, and the December 14, 2011 Rules and Procedures Relating to the Authorization for Release of Bankruptcy Records. Due to Judge Strawbridge's efforts, with the cooperation of the counsel of both CVLO and Defendants, the current CVLO MDL-875 case inventory is approximately 670 cases, down from approximately 5,000.

Additionally, I granted motions to dismiss based on faulty A012 submissions, and in some cases, motions for summary judgment were granted.

On March 5, 2012, Judge Strawbridge held an in-person hearing in Philadelphia to discuss, inter alia, counsel's request to amend the scheduling orders. After hearing their concerns, Judge Strawbridge allowed counsel to jointly craft the new scheduling orders with the instruction that there be small groups of cases with ripe summary judgment motions in June, July, and August of 2012, and that the last summary judgment motions be ripe before the end of January 2013. Counsel jointly drafted the proposed scheduling orders, and on March 21, 2012, counsel and Judge Strawbridge discussed them at length, including the few points on which counsel could not agree. Judge Strawbridge made decisions regarding those disagreements, and entered the scheduling orders on April 12, 2012. On April 27, 2012, plaintiffs filed their current objections to the scheduling orders.

Although Plaintiffs argue that the sheer number of cases they have brought have made it impossible for them to comply with all of the Court's scheduling orders, the Court has previously indicated that this contention does not excuse compliance. See In re Asbestos Products Liab. Litig. (No. VI), 278 F.R.D. 126, 132 (E.D. Pa. 2011) (Robreno, J.) ("The entry of appearance by counsel constitutes a representation that counsel is ready, willing and able to represent each party for whom counsel has entered an appearance fully and adequately. Each plaintiff, and the Court, are entitled to no less. If counsel's resources do not permit adequate representation in all cases before the Court, such that counsel is unable to comply fully with the Court's orders, counsel may need to either withdraw from representation of some of the plaintiffs or seek additional help to handle the cases properly and adequately."). A similar warning has been issued to Defendants. (See Tr. of Mot. Summ. J. Hr'g in Case No. 11-6347, May 11, 2012, at 27-29) (denying Defendant's motion for summary judgment as untimely filed, rejecting the excuse that "plaintiffs and defendants . . . have been juggling a lot of different cases[,] and directing Defendant either to engage additional attorneys if necessary to represent their clients or decline representation.).

Judge Strawbridge's scheduling orders were not "clearly erroneous and contrary to law." Rather, Judge Strawbridge's scheduling orders in the CVLO cases were necessary to ensure the "just, speedy and inexpensive," see Fed. R. Civ. P. 1, administration of this massive litigation. The Court has worked closely with both Plaintiffs and Defendants in these cases to issue reasonable and mostly mutually agreeable scheduling orders. Plaintiffs have had ample opportunities to confer with opposing counsel and with the Court in coming up with deadlines that work for all parties. Only by strict adherence to these reasonable deadlines imposed after consultations with counsel can a litigation of this scope be efficiently administered.
